Brisbane Girls Grammar School Parents

Are invited to a special guest lecture

Dr Andrew Fuller

Raising Real People

Creating resilient families by being emotionally intelligent parents

The School is fortunate to welcome Dr Fuller, psychologist and author, to share his knowledge and insights drawn from his work and books, including From Surviving to Thriving

Monday 14 July, 2008

6.30 pm – 8.00 pm

A101, Level 1,
The Cherrell Hirst Creative Learning Centre

Entry – no charge

Enquiries or further information please contact
Mrs Marise McConaghy, Deputy Principal, on 3332 1300

About the Author

Dr Andrew Fuller has recently been described as an “interesting mixture of Billy Connolly, Tim Winton and Frasier Crane” and as someone who “puts the heart back into psychology”. As a clinical psychologist, Andrew Fuller works with many schools and communities in Australia and internationally, specialising in the wellbeing of young people and their families. He is a Fellow of the Department of Psychiatry and the Department of Learning and Educational Development at the University of Melbourne.